Fifty years ago, the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and many other leaders launched a Poor Peoples Campaign to tackle the pervasive problems of systemic racism, poverty, and militarism. By many measures, these interrelated problems are worse today than they were back in 1968. And if you add in climate change and ecological devastation, the urgency is even greater.

NATIONWIDE:

- Voting rights protections in many states are weaker than they were 50 years ago.
- We imprison, detain and/or deport more people than any country in the world.
- 140 million people are poor or low-income.
- Despite strong economic growth, wealth inequality has expanded, the cost of living has increased, and social programs have been cut dramatically.
- 53 cents of every federal discretionary dollar goes to military spending and only 15 cents is spent on anti-poverty programs.
- 13.8 million U.S. households cannot afford water, while the poor are bearing the brunt of climate change effects.

IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA:

Somebody’s been hurting my people and it’s gone on far too long:

- 50 percent of people in DC are poor or low-income—a total of 328 thousand residents. This includes 64 percent of children (76 thousand), 52 percent of women (182 thousand), 67 percent of people of color (279 thousand), and 20 percent of White people (49 thousand).
- From 1979 to 2012, the income for the top 1% grew by 236 percent, while the income for the bottom 99% increased by 52 percent.

Systemic racism and its relationship to poverty:

- 23,142 people were deported from DC between 2003 and 2017, the tenth highest total among states and DC.
- Of the 2,057 people imprisoned in DC, 96% are people of color. Black people make up 86% of people imprisoned.

Militarism and the war economy:

- From 2008-2014, law enforcement has received at least 23.3 million dollars in military grade equipment.
- 6.8 billion dollars were spent on defense in 2015, with 4.5 billion in defense contracts.
- Almost 7,000 veterans have incomes below 35,000 dollars in DC—22 percent of the District’s veteran population.

Ecology and health:

- 35,400 people are uninsured.
- 15.1% of census tracts in D.C. are at-risk for being unable to afford water.

Everybody’s got a right to live:

- Almost 7,500 people are homeless. Working at the District’s minimum wage, it takes 107 hours of work per week to afford a 2-bedroom apartment.
- 108 thousand people participate in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program.
IT DOES NOT HAVE TO BE THIS WAY

A MORAL AGENDA BASED ON FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

Contrary to common myths, our country — the richest in the world — has abundant resources to protect the environment and ensure dignified lives for all people. The problem is a matter of priorities, as more and more of our wealth flows into the pockets of a small but powerful few — and into our bloated Pentagon budget.

- The richest 1% of DC residents are expected to receive 32% of the benefits of the new federal tax law. Their average tax cut in 2027 is expected to be $16,580, while the poorest 20% are expected to have to pay $50 more.

- The District of Columbia’s contribution to the country’s endless wars in Iraq, Afghanistan and beyond totals $21 billion since 2001, and could instead have created 16,800 new jobs in clean energy, or placed every District of Columbia child in Head Start early childhood education programs, or covered the cost of Medicaid for 231,000 adults for the past 17 years.

- DC has spent at least $225 million in public subsidies for corporations over the past five years without doing as much as they could to ensure funds are used to create good green jobs for low-income communities.

The Poor People’s Campaign: A National Call for Moral Revival has developed a detailed Moral Agenda Based on Fundamental Rights that would revive the efforts of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and many others for a “revolution of values” in America. This agenda includes demands on the federal and state governments to:

- Ensure the wealthy and corporations pay their fair share of urgent social needs, including decent and affordable housing, quality education and health care, safe and affordable water, and job creation.

- Protect voting rights and prohibit racist gerrymandering, hiring, policing, and sentencing policies that exacerbate inequalities for black and brown people.

- End military aggression, ban the proliferation of guns, and demilitarize our communities on the border and the interior.

- Ensure the right to clean water, air, and a healthy environment and increased public investment in jobs programs to transition to a green economy.
