

IPS TOP MEDIA HITS 2018

From the Washington Post, to Teen Vogue, to Democracy Now!, our work is reaching millions. We're getting the word out about everything from growing intersectional movements like the Poor People's Campaign to bold policy ideas like a maximum wage. By targeting local and regional papers, mainstream outlets, and viral social media, we're moving the needle on the most pressing issues of our time and pushing policymakers, activists, and academics to take strong progressive stances.

We can't shift the narrative without you. Thanks for all you do.
